June Local Labor Scene

The seasonally adjusted unemployment rate for the Janesville/Beloit Metropolitan Area was unchanged in June at 6.3 percent. The 6.3 percent figure is 0.4 percentage points lower than the 6.7 percent rate recorded in June 2002. Wisconsin's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was estimated at 5.6 percent in June, 0.2 percentage points higher than May's rate of 5.4 percent.

Five out of six Southwest Counties experienced increasing unadjusted unemployment rates in June, joining the 66 of Wisconsin's 72 counties that had higher unadjusted unemployment rates in June than in May. Iowa Country was one of only six Wisconsin Counties where unemployment declined in June, as compared to May. June is a vibrant month with respect to the labor force and characteristically shows Annual growth in jobs were found in services-producing industries as the goods producing sectors of construction and manufacturing continue to show an annual employment decrease.

National Notes

Average weekly earnings of America's full-time wage and salary workers were $616 in the second quarter of 2003, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported this month. This was 1.8 percent higher than a year earlier, compared with a gain of 2.2 percent in the Consumer Price Index .

The 2001 recession, the nation's first downturn in ten years, officially ended in November 2001, only eight months after it had begun, the National Bureau of Economic Research recently declared. The National Bureau of Economic Re-

Statewide Notes

Total non-farm wage and salary employment in Wisconsin increased by 30,800 jobs over the month to a total of 2,828,900 jobs. Leading the gaining industries were 10,600 more jobs in the leisure and hospitality sector, which includes employment in food and accommodation services and in arts, entertainment, and recreation.

first quarter of 2003, unemployment hit 6.4 percent in June (the highest national rate since April 1994), and the number of people collecting jobless benefits hit a 20 year high during June 2003.

There are signs that the long downward spiral of the US manufacturing sector may have hit bottom. The US Commerce Department reported that orders for durable goods, items meant to last three years or longer, rose a strongerthan-expected 2.1 percent in June, the largest gain in nearly a year. Shipments rose 1.3 percent in June and unfilled orders increased 0.1 of a percentage point.
